W.P. No. 768 (SS) of 2004

Hon'ble M.M. Ghildiyal, J.

Heard Sri D.V. Sharma, learned counsel for the petitioner.

By means of this writ petition, the petitioner has prayed to issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of mandamus directing the respondents to consider the candidature of petitioner for selection for special BTC training course by treating the certificate of Shiksha Shastri from Varanasi Sanskrit Vishwa Vidhyalaya.

Contention of the petitioner is that the petitioner has passed Shiksha Shastri from Varanasi Sanskrit Vishwa Vidhyalaya, which is equivalent to B.Ed. In spite of this, the respondents are not considering the candidature of the petitioner for Special BTC Course.

In the meantime, in case, there exist order of the Government to treat the "Shiksha Shastri" from "Varanasi Sanskrit Vishwa Vidhyalaya" equivalent to B.Ed. training, the respondents shall consider the candidature of the petitioner, who is having qualification of "Shiksha Shastri" from "Varanasi Sanskrit Vishwa Vidhyalaya", for special B.T.C. training, if the petitioner having domicile of State of Uttaranchal.

With these directions, the writ petition is disposed of finally.
